SP,

For the Libraries Advisory Board I'm going to draft letters of re-appointment for those members. Previously, you didn't have a problem with the members, but you had wanted to appoint a school librarian from the Valley. I will let him know that he has to apply for nomination through the AK School Library Association and also let the association know to be expecting his name so they can send it forward for consideration next time around.

If this is okay with you, I'll proceed.

Also, for the next judge interviews I'll consolidate the questions onto one list instead of having three. It seems like it will make it easier.

Thanks,

Subject: Fairbanks

The Fairbanks office has a timely issue they are looking for some guidance. The AGIA bill signing is the 6th and there has been some discussion about holding the Governor's picnic that same night. The picnic is usually later in the month but this year it is on a date that you are not available. Melissa believes that she can put together the picnic by the 6th if she gets going on the planning right away. It sounds like you are scheduled to overnight in Fairbanks anyway, what do you think? Thanks.

Mike
